

Barry was born in Chadderton, Nr Oldham and after qualifying as a Chartered Surveyor, set up his own Valuation and General Surveying Business in Rochdale in 1972, stepping down as MD in 2010.

His family have had a long association with Cartmel, living in the village for over 50 years whilst he took over the family home as resident 2007.

Chair of the Cartmel Township Initiative Group and Vice Chair of the Cartmel Village Society, he is an active member of Grange Golf Club, a keen gardener and supportive of all aspects leading to the village's enhancement.

