

David was born in Preston, Lancashire and went to school in Grange before going on to Malvern College. He gained a BSc (Eng) at Salford University whilst working at G.E.C. He then spent the majority of his working life in the healthcare industry.

A keen sportsman, he formed a cricket club and went on to become Chairman of the Palace Shield Cricket competition. He is no stranger to Cartmel as he used to come to the race meetings with his parents as a young boy and then with his children.

He moved to Cartmel in 2008 and joined the Village Society in 2009 and is the current Chair. He likes to be involved with the local community and is the present Chair of the Cartmel in Bloom Group.
