

Ian was born in Southport and has worked in procurement in the Construction industry for over 25 years.

He moved to Cartmel in 2010 with his wife Rachel, whose family have been lived in nearby Field Broughton for many years. He has three young children who all attend school in Cartmel.

He joined the Village Society in 2010 as Secretary and took up the position again in 2016 following a four year work sabbatical in Sydney, Australia. In addition to Cartmel and his family Ian has a passion for rugby union.

